1. Introduction

- 1.1 The privacy policy for job applicants in connection with the recruiting process (the "Privacy Policy") describes how the Organization as the controller (the ""us", "we", or "our""") as part of the recruiting processes, collects and processes personal data relating to job applicants. The Organization is committed to being transparent about how we collect and use personal data and meeting our data protection obligations. As a controller, we collect and process personal data about you in connection with handling your job application and in the recruiting process.
- 1.2 This Privacy Policy is prepared and made available to you to comply with the (EU) General Data Protection Regulation (2016/679 of 27 April 2016) (the "GDPR")

2. Types of personal data we process about you

- 2.1 We process personal data about you when this is necessary and in accordance with the applicable legislation. Depending on the specific circumstances, the processed personal data include the following types of personal data: name, address, phone number, email address, CV, profile picture, educational documents, references from former employers, date of birth, personality tests, information from social media that is publicly available and relevant, IP address, nationality.
- 2.2 We do not process sensitive personal data, i.e., the special categories of personal data, as defined in GDPR, Article 9(1).
- 2.3 As a general rule, we only collect personal data about you if you have directly provided us with this data. If specific circumstances allow or require us to collect personal data about you from third parties, we will only do so when relevant and to the extent necessary. We will inform you hereof, which may be done by updating this Privacy Policy. Personal data can be collected from publicly available sources including social media profiles.
- 2.4 If we need to collect more personal data than what is specified above, we will inform you directly or make information about the changes available by updating this Privacy Policy.

3. Purposes for processing the personal data

- 3.1 The personal data which we collect about you are processed for the following purposes:
 - a) To process job applications and to recruit the relevant candidates.
 - b) To be able to create and maintain a directory of relevant candidates for positions in our organization.

4. Legal basis for processing personal data

- 4.1 We only process your personal data when we have a legal basis to do so in accordance with the GDPR. Depending on the specific circumstances, the processing of personal data is done on the following legal bases:

- a) If we have asked for your consent for the processing of your personal data, the legal basis for the processing of such personal data is your consent, cf. GDPR, Article 6(1)(a). Your consent can always be withdrawn by contacting us via the contact details provided at the end of this Policy, and, if the consent is withdrawn, the personal data processed on the basis of consent is deleted, unless it can or must be processed, for example, in order to comply with legal obligations.
- b) The processing is necessary to comply with applicable legislation, cf. GDPR, Article 6(1)(c), including any specific rules on the processing of personal data in the employment context as provided in GDPR, Article 88 such as section 12(1) of the Danish Data Protection Act.
- c) The processing is necessary and carried out in the Organization's legitimate interests and not overridden by your data protection interests or fundamental rights and freedoms, cf. GDPR, Article 6(1)(f).

5. Disclosure and transfer of personal data

5.1 No, our organization is not part of a concern / company group.

6. Erasure and retention of personal data

6.1 We ensure that your personal data is deleted when it is no longer relevant for the processing purposes as described above. We always retain personal data to the extent that we have a legal obligation to do so, for example in the case of accounting and bookkeeping materials and records.

If you are offered a position and become an employee in the Organization, your personal data from the job application and data from the recruiting process are transferred/moved to our regular HR management system.

If you are not offered a position in the Organization, your personal data is erased after 6 months in accordance with applicable law. Notwithstanding the above, specific reasons related to employment law may necessitate the continuous processing of personal data. This may have different implications. For example, we may process the applications for a longer period to prove that there was no unlawful discrimination in the selection process when we consider this necessary. Similarly, it may be relevant to process the personal data for a limited period if a similar relevant position may become available during this period, or if another candidate opts out of the recruiting process.

If you have any questions about our retention of your personal data, please contact the email mentioned under the last section of this Privacy Policy.

6.2 If you consent to a longer retention period, we follow such period, for example, if we process the job application in such a limited period to be able to contact you again in case of a suitable vacancy.

7. Your rights as a data subject

7.1 As a data subject under GDPR, you have a number of rights:
